President Carter
Senator Gaylord Nelson
Senator William Proxmire
Representative Robert Kastenmeier
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sirs: President Carter, Senator Nelson, Senator Proxmire, and Robert Kastenmeier:

In the name of God and humanity and the principles we hold dear about human rights and dignity, please do everything in your considerable powers to bring strong pressure to bear on South Korean President Chun to respect human rights of his own people, who would be working with him to create a new and better Korea.

be persuaded by various means feasible

Especially, we urge that President Chun take action to assure fair trial in the appeal for Kim Dae Jung and his co-defendants. Please consider such measures as would bring real pressure to bear on this matter, rather than continuing support for some of the very means being used for oppression of these long troubled people. And then take action, hopefully before it is too late to save Kim Dae Jung's life.

Sincerely,

Alice M. Schacht
